TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

This is to formally acknowledge that Shree Ram Corporation, an authorized channel partner of Symphony, has successfully installed 13 units of the Venticool 25U model along with accessories in our production area.

We are highly satisfied with their meticulous planning, quality of workmanship, and the overall execution of the project. The installation was completed to our full satisfaction, and the support provided was both efficient and cost-effective.

We are also very pleased with the performance of the Symphony Industrial Air Coolers. These modular, well-engineered machines demonstrate excellent build quality and operational efficiency.

We highly recommend Symphony Industrial Air Coolers for their superior design, reliability, and performance.
