

The image shows the exterior of a building named 'Manas Bhavan'. The building has a modern design with orange and brown panels. A prominent feature is a large, ornate archway in the center, which is white with gold accents. Above the archway, the name 'MANAS BHAVAN' is written in a curved banner. Below the archway, there are three smaller arches, each with a decorative gate. A silver car is parked in front of the building. To the right, there is a sign that reads 'श्री श्रीराम प्रार्थना' (Shri Shri Ram Prarthana). The sky is overcast, and there are power lines visible in the foreground.
